Nikki

 NZ Diploma in Enrolled Nursing

 Enrolled Nurse

Nikki's children faced serious illness at a young age, her son experiencing his first stroke at just nine-months old. His round-the-clock care requirements meant Nikki witnessed first-hand the compassion and dedication exemplified by our nurses every day in Aotearoa.

Over the 20 years of her son's life, Nikki developed a passion for healthcare. The hospital became her second home and seeing the impact staff had on their patients inspired her every day. After her son passed away, she decided it was time to try something new. It wasn't until she visited Whitireia did Nikki discover the world of enrolled nursing.

After just 18 short months of study, enrolled nurses are qualified to assist registered nurses to deliver care to individuals in a range of health settings. For Nikki, studying the Diploma in Enrolled Nursing felt like the perfect stepping-stone in her career. While the prospects of beginning a new career were daunting, Nikki says she wouldn't have been able to complete her studies without the support at Whitireia. "The tutors helped me work around any barriers and showed me there's always a way. They understood my daughter's healthcare needs and took the time to find me a placement close to home so I could continue caring for her."

Now an Enrolled Nurse at Kenepuru Hospital, Nikki is proud to use her skills every day to support people in her community on their journey to wellness. Helping people regain the things they've lost and seeing the positive impact of that is what it's all about for Nikki.

When asked what qualities make a great enrolled nurse, Nikki responded, "If you're compassionate, empathetic and love to help people, nursing is the career for you. Whitireia is the starting point to achieve your goals"

With both theory based learning, and practical, hands-on experience, students develop the skills needed to become an enrolled nurse.

Programme outline

The New Zealand Diploma in Enrolled Nursing is an 18-month full-time programme, approved by Nursing Council of New Zealand, which prepares students to become an enrolled nurse.

Enrolled nurses assist registered nurses to deliver nursing care to individuals in community, residential and. Enrolled nurses contribute to nursing assessment, care planning, implementation and evaluation, but the registered nurse remains responsible overall.

The enrolled nurse performs delegated interventions from the nursing care plan to:

- provide care and comfort for individuals and groups
- assist and support clients with activities of daily living
- observe and report changes in individual/group conditions and behaviours
- safeguard dignity and promote independence

More detail about this qualification

Part A

The New Zealand Diploma in Enrolled Nursing is taught over 18 months. Students who successfully complete Part A (full year) can then enrol in Part B (half year).

The first year of the programme provides the foundational knowledge and skills required to enable students to work as part of the health care team with clients/patients/residents in a range of hospital and community settings.

Part B

In the second year, students enrol for six months and work towards being prepared to work effectively, efficiently and safely within a variety of broad practice areas including hospitals and community settings.

Students who successfully complete the New Zealand Diploma in Enrolled Nursing are required to sit the Nursing Council of New Zealand State Final Examinations. When these examinations are passed, the student can apply to the Nursing Council for registration as an enrolled nurse.

Teaching and learning

The Diploma is a combination of theory (classroom base sessions at the Porirua campus) and supported clinical experience (practical/hands-on work, which is completed in a variety of community and hospital settings).

A variety of teaching processes are used in the programme including lectures, tutorials, learning packages, workshops, student presentations, online learning and practical sessions in the simulation suites where 'hands-on' skills are learnt and practiced.

The programme is delivered by blended learning i.e., face to face and online learning. This means some of your lessons may be delivered via Moodle (our online learning platform), which will require you to have a computer and internet access at home. Students will also need to be able to work from home should Covid-19 Alert Levels change.

Course-related costs

Prior to starting the programme, you'll be required to complete health screening to provide evidence of your current immunisation status, as required by our placement providers. Further information on this and other course costs will be provided on acceptance into the programme. The following costs are approximate:

- Health screening $270
- Medical equipment $185
- Uniform: $200
